

This essence contains love and sorrow. It has the love that many people felt for Diana, Princess of Wales, and the sorrow that they felt at her death.

But it also contains the determination that this sorrow will not bring us down, that it will enable us to go forward with renewed love, and through that love achieve great things.

It is therefore appropriate for any situation where we feel sorrow at a loss - not necessarily a death. And it enables us to reach deep into the love that exists inside and all around us, and to go forward, to be inspired to achieve things that we had thought were beyond us.

Where there is blame or guilt, it enables us to move beyond that, to know that love is greater than any other force, and that negative forces can never overcome the power of love.

It is important to say that Marion Davis (White Hawk) made her Pink Angel essence in Kensington Gardens, immediately after the funeral of Diana.

My essence, made ten years later, owes a great deal to her inspiration.

Marion's essence promotes love, harmony, understanding, compassion and inner peace, and I hope mine will as well.

Other essences

Woodland Spirits of Buckland

Woodland spirits have the ability and willingness to help us with a wide range of spiritual or emotional problems, if we will let them.

Roydon Heath

A protection essence for light workers and healers, made on a beautiful common in Norfolk.

Kilpeck

This is a very strong energy, bringing the peace that helps us to realise that, whatever the problem is, within the overall scheme of things there is an answer. And that this peace is ours for the asking.

Goytre

This is an essence for those who have started their spiritual journey, and are open to what awaits them. It is an opening, an enlightening essence, helping you to see the path of your spiritual journey.

Deep Strength and Peace

When you take this essence, you will feel yourself slow down, feel strength coming into you and hear what it is that you need to hear.

How do I take it?

The classical advice for taking an essence is to take a few drops from the stock bottle and make up a dosing bottle (typically 25ml) and then take 3 - 5 drops twice a day, either direct into the mouth, or into a glass of water.

However, there are many variations.

I put my essences into a 500ml bottle of water and drink it during the day. Drops can be put onto the pulse points, or into the bath. Some people find they need 20 drops or more in a day.

I always encourage people to do what their intuition tells them, and not only to listen to someone else saying what they should do!

If you've got any questions, please e-mail me. Or if taking the essence has a special effect - let me know.
